AUTHORIZATION

I, _____, authorize The National Institutes of Health (NIH) and the Stimulating Peripheral Activity to Relieve Conditions Data and Resource Center (SPARC DRC) to collect, record, publish and/or broadcast or livestream stories, writings, videos, interviews, films, recordings, images, artworks, or photographs of me taken in connection with the SPARC program (including the SPARC Portal). The contributions and/or recordings may be used, broadcast or distributed in any medium by NIH, the SPARC DRC, or others authorized by NIH for the development and promotion of science and health and for any other purpose consistent with NIH's mission, including development and promotion of the SPARC program and program resources (e.g., the SPARC Portal and SPARC social media). NIH and the SPARC DRC will be free to edit, copy, adapt or translate the contribution without my permission. I release NIH, the SPARC DRC, and other authorized users from any claims arising out of such uses.
